

It is a beautiful thing to see more printed Scripture make it into the hands of the Wahgi church. Please be in prayer for our co-worker Dan, our translation consultants, and translation helpers Gabriel and David as they'll be working over the next week to check approximately 1,200 more verses of the North Wahgi New Testament. These verses will contain some heavy content like the books of Revelation and Hebrews along with some other epistles. Please pray that the Holy Spirit will burn off the brain fog and that the helpers will be able to retain and clearly recall/re-tell what they heard read to them.

The checking process will begin while those of us here in the US are preparing for dinner Thursday evening and will continue for the next week. So, as you sit at the dinner table, please remember the Wahgi church and the translation check in your prayers.

Thank you for praying,
