More than Dinner

By Jenny Deweese
Director of Volunteers

A crisp, autumn breeze mingles with the savory aroma of roasting turkey stuffed with delicious homemade dressing as I cross the threshold of Mom's house. Home for another blessed, laughter-filled family gathering, I'm already deliberating which blessing I'll share as "something I'm thankful for" when we gather around the table.

Thanksgiving is a time for family and friends to share and remember the many gifts we have been given. Our guests here at the mission, however, sometimes find it difficult to recall such blessings. "Home" has become an elusive dream for some of them. That's one reason we strive to serve them a Thanksgiving dinner they won't soon forget. Our faithful volunteers come during the week leading up to Thanksgiving to prepare food, set up tables and chairs, and, finally, to serve our guests and their families a delicious, home-made, traditional meal with restaurant-style service. Our wonderful volunteers then help with clean-up, as well. This meal is served on the Wednesday before Thanksgiving Day.

If you would like to help us bless our guests in this way, please contact me as soon as possible. The schedule is as follows:
Monday: 4-6 volunteers
Tuesday: 4-6 volunteers
Wednesday shifts:

- 9am-1pm, 3-4 volunteers
- 1pm-6pm, 4 volunteers
- 4pm-6pm, 12 volunteers
- 5:30pm-8pm, 6 volunteers.

Thank you for your invaluable service!

Tasty Blessings

Our Dutch apple pie sale was a huge success this year! Thank you to all of you who came to spend the days helping us make crumb topping (shout out to our "crumby volunteers"!), crusts (let's hear it for our "crusty volunteers"!), and almost 500 homemade pies (that's where our "spicy" and "appealing" volunteers came in)! We could not have done this without you! We had 77 volunteers this year with quite a few first-timers. I heard a lot of positive comments, and several of you told me that you'll be back next year. I'm so glad you enjoyed the experience!

You are absolutely price-less!
