

Dear ones at Immanuel,

What a blessing your prayer and financial support has been all these years. God truly meets my needs daily. A song running through my mind is "What a mighty God we serve! His promises are true. I can stand on His word." May God richly bless and use each of us for His glory!

In Christian love,

Chery Euler